About the Event

Since 2011, PharmOut has hosted the annual forum to provide international regulatory changes, best practice up-dates and innovative thinking within the life-science industry.

International and Australian presenters have shared ideas and experiences around these industry hot topics, with your help we have helped shape a better Australian life-science manufacturing sector.

The International GMP Virtual Forum will continue into 2021, as we share exciting ideas and experiences around industry hot topics and innovation. 2021 will be no different, but we again need your help! At this stage we plan to discuss, debate and listen to thought leaders on subjects like quality culture, continuous improvement, quality metrics, quality risk management, process, cleaning and computer systems validation, equipment qualification, novel approaches to manufacturing and testing, facility, equipment and systems design and construction. There will also be updates on GMP regulatory changes from both the TGA and internationally.
